Clay's Notes

Hogan Brown who was a featured fly tier for Iydlwilde Flies has recently brought his talent to the Montana Fly Company. His new fly patterns can be purchased on-line from Dream Drift Flies.

The Little Amigo is a new imitative mayfly pattern. They represent the small mayfly nymphs that trout eat regularly. I don't have a tying recipe for this pattern but I will try to get one soon. Until then order some for your mayfly boxes.
